The Cellar

A welcoming space off of our main room that can be configured for groups of various sizes. With no-Covid restrictions the room holds about 70 people- currently we are able to seat approximately 35 with social distancing (subject to change).

Available Tuesday through Sunday with a maximum 4-hour rental.

Up to four taps are available in The Cellar via a kegerator and private bar setup (see per-pint beer restrictions below). There will be a loss of one table (4 guests) if using kegerator option.

One private bartender will be made available with a 4-hour space rental. Choice of kegerator or end-of-bar will be made by customer prior to booking.

Event Space rental fee is due upon reservation- and is not applicable to event minimums.

Event Contract must be signed at time of booking Event Space.

The Cellar space may be rented unstaffed at a discount- please inquire about these options prior to booking.

Outdoor space is not included in the booking of event space, though it may be made available upon customer request.

Food may be arranged through the brewery or through external catering companies- please inquire about options prior to booking.

Any groups larger than 20 people must use catering unless prearranged with Luce Line Brewing Co.

Included in the event space rental fee:

In-house event coordination- including coordinating with outside vendors if necessary.

Use of space one hour prior to event for set up. (We will set up existing tables/chairs/audio-visual/anything requiring a ladder- in house)

You are responsible for setup/teardown of any items you bring in. (with the exception of items requiring the use of a ladder- those will be handled by Luce Line staff).

Access to catering menu and/or ordering assistance from outside vendors.

Complimentary Clean-up (any damage to facility/equipment will be added to final bill).

Complimentary microphone and zoned speaker system for audio.
Complimentary large-screen HD Television/monitor for meetings and events.

Beer

Beer is sold by the pint.

Per Minnesota State Law, only Luce Line Brewing Company made beer and/or non-alcoholic beverages may be served onsite. Beer selection will vary per season, and prices are subject to change. We provide a wide variety of non-alcoholic beverages that also vary throughout the year as well- prices also subject to change.

Open tab, wooden nickel drink tickets, or cash bar are all options. Discuss your specific needs with the events manager prior to booking.

Catering

We have an extensive list of catering options available- and are open to work with anyone provided to us by potential customers.

Many different types of food options are available, including vegetarian and gluten-free.

Food orders must be finalized at least 14 days in advance of the scheduled event.

Gratuity

We do not automatically add gratuity, so we kindly request you add gratuity at the close-out of your food/beverage bill. We hope our staff will earn an 18-20% tip. Please speak with the operations manager if you experience anything less than exceptional customer service.

Cancellation Policy

Event Space rental fee is due in full upon booking event. A cancellation fee of 15% of the original fee will be assessed for events that are canceled more than three weeks in advance of the scheduled event. A 50% fee will be assessed if notice is given with less than a three-week notice. If the event is rescheduled to the satisfaction of both the guest and Luce Line Brewing Co., there will be a $100 fee assessed as well as any increases due based on the potential change of day in the week.
